Halloween Costume Contest Rules

- Spirit Week Halloween Costume Contest is open to all Ambria College of Nursing Students.
- Entry form must be submitted by the deadline for student name to appear on the voting ballot.
- Students who are enrolled in multiple classes will be registered as a contestant in one class only.
- Costumes do not need to be home made.
- A costume is defined as clothing and accessories. (A facemask and/or wig without the clothing will not qualify as a costume).
- Costumes must be self-contained and must not interfere with class activities.
- The Costume Contest is a school function so costumes must be G-rated. (No low-cut tops, micro miniskirts, or otherwise suggestive costumes).
- Only Ambria College of Nursing students, staff, and faculty will be eligible to vote.
- Students who violate these contest rules will be disqualified.
- By entering the Costume Contest, all participants agree to grant Ambria College of Nursing permission to use their image(s) for promotional purposes.

Costume Contest Prizes

- Prizes will be awarded to:
- All registered contestants who dress in costume on assigned contest day.
  - One finalist from each class (selected by class votes at the beginning of class).
  - Top 3 student costumes (selected by all Ambria student votes through online voting).
  - Best faculty/staff costume (selected by all Ambria student votes through online voting).
- PLUS pizza for the class with the highest participation rate!
